

Fool

Amy Pearson

Must be mildly crazy,
Thinkin' that you're gon preciate me,
Could you just be kinda lazy?
Coz I think its time you celebrate me,

Always tryna do the thing you like,
Why d'ya have to make it a waste of time,
I lay it out baby ya must be blind,
Chasin' my tail again,

And even saying I love you,
Never ever sounds enough,
But you know that I do,
They sky could be clear babe,
But you never call it blue,
Why don't you ya f-f-fool

Could be a big neon plus sign,
But you'd swear right there was I red light
Baby this is bona fide love,
So tell me what is it your scared of?

Yeah Yeah Yeah, Yeah Yeah Yeah,
Don't get no gratitude, Yeah Yeah Yeah,
What's your problem baby?

Stand up baby and take the blame,
Ya got your head in the sand again,
Can't get through it's such a shame,
Tell me why?

And even saying I love you,
Never ever sounds enough,
But you know that I do,
They sky could be clear babe,
But you never call it blue,
Why don't you ya f-f-fool
