

Stranded

Amy Pearson

So my heart has been ship wrecked again
And I try to swim to dry land
To reach the shore,
It's a desert island and I wright help,
In the sand as large as I can,
That you ignore,
So I'm waving at air planes,
Waiting for ships to come take me away,

When I noticed the tide
Sure is coming in fast,
And I guess that this song
Really could be my last,

I feel like I'm stranded here with,
No-one to rescue me
Abandoned by everyone I need,
I feel like you played me,
I feel like I'm such a fool,
Left stranded here by you, oh

So the quick sand is pulling me down,
You could throw that rope,
And could save me from dispare,
I was cast away you let me drown,
So I tried to scream but I bet
No-one would hear,

Put a message in a bottle
That you'll never read,
So this is the last song
That you'll get from me,

I feel like I'm stranded here with,
No-one to rescue me
Abandoned by everyone I need,
I feel like you played me,
I feel like I'm such a fool,
Left stranded here by you, oh oh oh

So I'm waving at air planes,
Waiting for ships to come take me away,

When I noticed the tide
Sure is coming in fast,
And I guess that this song,
I'm scared that this song,
Really could be my last,

I feel like I'm stranded here with,
No-one to rescue me
Abandoned by everyone I need,
I feel like you played me,
I feel like I'm such a fool,
I feel like I'm stranded here with,
No-one to rescue me
Abandoned by everyone I need,

Stuck between 2 worlds,
What should I do,
I'm stranded by you
