

Come inside this closet
It's filled with friends
There's enough smoke in here
To wake the dead

Seven of us, crowded in the same one space
I can't hide my eyes
I cant feel my face.

Cheap red wine, it stains your teeth
The courage for the lips, I came to see
When the sun goes down
It's feasting time
Because we sleep all day
And come alive at night

Only the freaks come out at night
Scared to death of the red and blue lights
Right or wrong, we just belong
Only the freaks come out at night

Because tonight's the night, tonight's the night

Turn on, tune in, drop out my friends
Sleep when we're dead
The party never ends
If you're one of those freaks
That comes out at night
Put this to your tongue
And you'll feel alright

Only the freaks come out at night
Scared to death of the red and blue lights
Right or wrong, we just belong
Only the freaks come out at night
Because tonight's the night, tonight's the night

To everyone stuck in the middle
(Know you're not alone)
To everyone in a fight
(Know you're not alone)
From the desert to New York City
The freaks come out at night
(Know you're not alone)
