

I Hate You So Much

Anarbor

She screamed wait
I strapped the tape to her lips tied up her wrists and gave her my last kiss now, we're at the top of a cliff I push her off, I watched her hit and if your weak eyes could open up row back and look up you'd see me right at the top and I replay it into my head

the sight of you dead
I'm so glad it's over now

I'm not impressed without (I hate you so much, I hate you so much right now)
you fought to tear me down
(I hate you so much, I hate you so much right now)
Now I got my way
I'll leave you up to stay
all I can say to you I hate you so much right now

You never thought that it would come to this your ignorance was bliss you were at the top of my list the off things you've done created a monster that I've become

you fought to tear me down
(I hate you so much, I hate you so much right now)
Now I got my way
all I can say to you

I trusted you
I wanted you
I needed you
I needed you
once you were my everything but you're dead to me you're dead to me

Now I got my way
I'll leave you after stay
all I can say to you

I hate you so much

you fought to tear me down
Now I got my way

Now I got my way
