

If You Sing

Anarbor

You don't know where I'm coming from.
And all the faces look the same.
And all the people have come and gone.
Can you remember anybody's name?

My eyes are always open,
To what I wanna see.
I'm trying not to close them,
Oh I'm not who I used to be.

If you sing, then I sing.
You've got my heart beat racing.
When you're gone, I'm crazy.
I need you to stay with me.
I can't sleep. When you're gone.
You're all I need. I need someone.
And I won't sing. Till you say you're with me.

You never know where I'm coming from.
And the parties move the same.
And all the words that I should've known.
If you would only let me explain.

Your eyes are always open,
To what you wanna see.
Trying not to close them,
Oh you're not who you used to be.

If you sing, then I sing.
You've got my heart beat racing.
When you're gone, I'm crazy.
I need you to stay with me.
I can't sleep. When you're gone.
You're all I need. I need someone.
And I won't sing. Till you say you're with me.
Till you say you're with me.

My eyes are always open,
To what I wanna see.
I'm trying not to close them,
Oh I'm not who I used to be.

If you sing, then I sing.
You've got my heart beat racing.
When you're gone, I'm crazy.
I need you to stay with me.
I can't sleep. When you're gone.
You're all I need. I need someone.
And I won't sing. Till you say you're with me.
Till you say you're with me.
