

Empire of Lies

Ancient Dome

Look! Over there stands the beginning of a new life
The journey of Jason is over, a new Earth is in sight
Argonauts! Prepare for landing, prepare to colonize
For sure we will find everything we need, a new eve for mankind

Lies... Lies! Empire of lies
Built on ephemeral promises, a cosmic conspiracy in time
Blind... flight! (A) Voyage to Void
A planet already exploited and drained, an empty shell to be avoided

Ruins! Remains of an ancient society in front of us
Cities abandoned in past, dark skeletons covered by rust
Despair! Painted on faces of us, stellar mariners
We've experienced to be part of power games, a new frontier of lie

Lies... Lies! Empire of lies
Built on ephemeral promises, a cosmic conspiracy in time
Blind... flight! (A) Voyage to Void
A planet already exploited and drained, an empty shell to be avoided

[Spoken] The New Interstellar Force overcomes the early discouragement, finding again a reason to fight for and to restart their journey, searching other gateways through infinite seas of stars, trying undaunted to show their strength, finding newly exploited planets once submitted by an empire built on lies without losing hope... and they will never come back again. [/Spoken]

Doom! Our fate is lost in space, drown in a sea of stars
Our pride for a long-awaited enterprise has turned into anger and pain
Argonauts! Prepare to sail again, prepare to discover new lands
The journey of Jason is not over, new hopes for a new life

Lies... Lies! Empire of lies
Built on ephemeral promises, a cosmic conspiracy in time
Blind... flight! (A) Voyage to Void
A planet already exploited and drained, an empty shell to be avoided
