

The Tease The Tear

And Also The Trees

Your features
Looking so happy inside
Don't let them see down through the floors
Ignores the questionnaires and smiles
Plays ignorant to words today
The blind could not ignore your smiles
Hear in your features anger talks
Jagged, haggared they talk
Screaming, still
In sorrow features never hide
To sorrow features cannot hide
Jagged, haggared they talk
And then my fear behind venetian blinds
The tease the tear
The tease the tear
Every face the words too deep to speak
And then my fear behind venetian blinds
Appear hidder in my reflections
Speaking nothing, abusing my ears
The wailing sirens in your eyes
Within your features anger boils
Alarm, aware they talk
The tease the tear
The tease the tear
