

Betrayed By The Heart

Andragonia

Turn off the lights and let me in
After too long we're standing here
Don't know how much I've wished it
Staring at you I'm feeling free

All these words I hear from you
Changed something inside
Never before I've felt like this
Now it's too late there's no turning back

I'm yearning,
I'm wanting,
I wish to prove the taste of sin
I'm breathing,
I'm screaming,
I feel the heat under my skin
I'm reaching out for your love
(never let me be) be betrayed by the heart

It's so strange to feel this shame on my head
I'm crawling to find the way out

I was a fool to let you know
My deepest feelings inside
I trusted you I didn't know
You were pretending all the time

Truth now was revealed...
Truth was revealed!

Now the time has come...
I know what you've done...
Truth was revealed...

Solo 1 : Larenttes
Solo 2 : Leitao

It's so hard to feel this pain on my head
I've never knew I could get so far!

I'm kneeling,
I'm begging,
I wish to break free from this sin
I'm hurting,
I'm crying,
I feel the lack of your false love
I'm reaching out for my innocence
(I didn't know) I was betrayed by the heart.
