Power Stream

Andre Matos

Do you remember, not too long ago the cherry tree blossomed in vain? it was so hazy, yet hard to forget now all seems to happen again

With the power of your mind no desire is denied

It's a power stream you conceive your dreams in world you'd never say no there's a place to go land of miracles where the feeling never went wrong, no no no no

Time is scare now, you better sleep forget all the crosses beared and though you keep on dreaming, your life is for real all you need to do now is dare

With the power of your mind every longing can be defined...

It's a power stream you conceive your dreams in world you'd never say no there's a place to go land of miracles where the feeling never went wrong, no no no no
