

On Paper

Andrew Allen

Wrote down all the things I'd want
I'm just a simple guy, the list ain't very long
Wasn't lookin' for a saint
Just somebody on the same damn page
The same damn page

Your eyes are brown but I had asked for blue
You're not as tall but that's ok
I'm pretty sure I was the one without a clue
'Cause God came down and did me a favour
You're so much better than I drew you up on paper

I just can't figure you out
Way the sun shines from the corner of your mouth
Picture perfect every time,
When you laugh out loud or when you draw the line

Your eyes are brown but I had asked for blue
You're not as tall but that's ok
I'm pretty sure I was the one without a clue
'Cause God came down and did me a favour
You're so much better than I drew you up on paper

Oooo, you're so amazing
Oooo, the way you captivate me
Oooo... and I never ever thought that I would end up with someone like you

Your eyes are perfect why would I ask for blue?
The way you are, we fit great, mmmmm
And you were made for me and I was made for you
'Cause God came down and did me a favour
You're so much better than I drew you up on paper

Oooo
