Andrew Belle

Calm weather for an operation
Now that you're lying still
Formula of a calculation
That if it can, it can
It will, it will, it will

Surprise, Surprise, Surprise
You're wise in your own eyes
Alright, Alright, Alright
You are

And I'm a revelation
That you're beholden to
So don't give me that blood relation
Cause it'll bleed right through a lie
High on your own supply
Alright, alright, alright
You are

Are we looking for trouble now
Are we looking for trouble now
Are we looking for trouble now
Are we looking now

Yea but here comes trouble now
Yea but here comes trouble now
Yea but here comes trouble now
Yea but here comes

Surprise, Surprise, Surprise
You're wise in your own eyes
Alright, Alright, Alright
You are
