

Sorry To Let You Down

Andrew Gold

You think you got me where you want me now
That I won't be able, boy, to help myself somehow
I must admit you got the perfect moves
You play the game like you just don't ever lose

There doesn't seem to be a doubt at all
That you're the one that's gonna make me fall

Sorry to let you down
Not gonna go that way
It wasn't meant to be
That's the kindest thing to say
You flash your favorite smile
You think that's all it takes to
Hold me, love me
I need to hear sincere
I need to feel the real
Someone who'll stay around
Sorry to let you down

Go ahead now, baby, do your best
I'm kinda flattered that you want my kiss, I guess
But it takes more than just lookin' fine
If you want to get inside this heart of mine

Do you expect that I'll just lose control?
Is that the way you think it goes?

Sorry to let you down
Not gonna go that way
It wasn't meant to be
That's the kindest thing to say
You flash your favorite smile
You think that's all it takes to
Hold me, love me
I need to hear sincere
I need to feel the real
Someone who'll stay around
Sorry to let you down
