

Lover Thine

Android Lust

He says I keep the faith in the only thing
It gives me grief it gives me pain
It's heaven and hell in one
He believes the best has come and gone

He hides it in a special place
His lover his life mate
He says I do the best to keep you in my arms
My money you're the only one

Down in the corner he sits on his hands
Laughs in glee and delight at his plans
To beg steal and borrow every penny that he can Fuck his dear mother if it gained him a grand

He's a well-respected man of means
With a touch of slime in between
His lips as words he weaves
This wide-eyed fool already believes

Down in the corner he sits on his hands
Laughs in glee does a happy little dance
