

Shores Unknown

Android Lust

Ancient waters flowing
I have waited a thousand years
Cold wind is blowing
You are come to me now

Forgotten glory
I am the answer to your prayers
Do you remember our story
A love that lasts between the worlds

Ancient rivers flowing
Take our souls to shores unknown
In forever agony
You are mine, a king of my own

Pray to me for mercy
I'll forgive lover of mine
From Babylon on Euphrates
You are home this is your shrine
