

Casual

Andy Grammer

Let's keep it casual, he says
She could not agree more as she nods her head
Let's water down this drink of ours
We'd rather lower stakes than raise the bar

It's not looking too good
I'm not feeling the way that I should
Try to separate the ocean from the shore
It's not looking too good
I've been wondering maybe we could

'Cause we are, we are forcing
Our bodies not to breathe
And we are, we are more than
Straight to DVD
And we are, we are born in
To higher lives than these
And still we live
So casually

Let's keep it casual, she says
He could not agree more
As he gets from the bed
Let's hold back most of who we are
Can touch the body but the soul stays so far

It's not looking too good
I'm not feeling the way that I should
Try to separate the ocean from the shore
It's not looking too good
I've been wondering maybe we could

'Cause we are, we are forcing
Our bodies not to breathe
And we are, we are
More than straight to DVD
And we are, we are born in
To higher lives than these
Still we live
So casually

Oh no no no
We are fragile
This is more than just for fun
We are noble
Underneath all we have done
We are brilliant
If you reach beyond our skin
We are brilliant
When we finally let you in

'Cause we are, we are forcing
And we are, we are more than

And we are, we are born in
To higher lives than these
Still we live
So casually
