

In My World of Illusion

Andy Williams

Everyday
You capture me with your beauty
I can't speak
I can't find the words within me
When I see you
My heart skips a beat
I tremble
Whenever our eyes meet
Hopelessly lost
In my world of illusion

In my dreams
You give me love and affection
And it seems
In you I have found perfection
So near
Yet you're so far out of reach
But your love has touched me forever
Hopelessly lost
In my world of illusion

Are you real
Or someone's loving creation
Work of art
A painter's imagination?
If you really exist
Then I'll find you
But until then
You will find me
Hopelessly lost
In my world of illusion
In my world of illusion
