

Yellow Beach Umbrella

Andy Williams

When I am a flyer
I'll fly down to Miami
Get a room in one of those
Big resort hotels
And nobody there
Will ever get to know me well
Nobody there
Will ever get to know me well

I'll be just another
Yellow beach umbrella
On the shore
Of the southern sea
I will be a mystery
To everyone
I won't take you along with me

When I am a driver
I'll drive on to Tempico
Sleep in the sand
Whether the weather brings
Sunshine or rain
And nobody there
Will ever get to know my name
Nobody there
Will ever get to know my name

I'll be just another
Yellow beach umbrella
On the shore
Of the southern sea
I will be a mystery
To everyone
I won't take you along with me

And nobody there
Will ever find out who I am
Nobody there
Will ever find out who I am

I'll be just another
Yellow beach umbrella
On the shore
Of the southern sea
I will be a mystery
To everyone
I won't take you
I won't take you
I won't take you
