In For A Ride

Anekdoten

How long 'til I'm set free Until I find a tie that binds? How long until I see The words that rhyme? But when the blinding lights have all gone down You are in for a ride

How long until we meet Until our lines will intertwine? How far until we hit The other side? But when we've passed the point of no return You are in for a ride

Fate came by and leaned in close to me I skipped a heartbeat What if this is what I've waited for? Then what will come of me? Maybe the timing is more wrong than right? Signs of panic But I've bought that ticket and I'll take that ride There's no way back to sleep When you've woken up the beast

Suddenly the dice were cast The bones were dancing madly on the table Don't think about tomorrow Don't dwell on the mistakes that you have made This is the time, this is the place And when the blinding lights have all gone down You are in for a ride
