The Games We Play

Anekdoten

I wonder how We should fill the open space After lunch time tea In the rosary And the evening picnic by the sea

Tell me your name I am game if you want to play Tell riddles in the hall Play hide and seek or ball Or if you'd like to sneak out through the wall