

I Need to Stay

Anette Olzon

Looking behind see how the year went by
So full of dreams life was ahead
You came around that's only how I drowned
Seeing through your eyes I know that I failed

When the things go wrong?
When did the days go by?
Thought I had more time to change me

I'm not ready for the end to come
Won't let go
Please I need to stay
Does it really have to end this way?
Just one day
A day to change oneself

Remember the day
Just like it happened now
I still see your face
So saddened and downed
Words that come out, read as the thought of how Impact they have the rest of our lives

Could I find a way to step right back in time?
Would erase that day and change me

I'm not ready for the end to come
Won't let go
Please I need to stay
Does it really have to end this way?
Just one day
A day to change oneself

Could I find a way to step right back in time?
Would erase that day and change me

I'm not ready for the end to come
Won't let go
Please I need to stay
Does it really have to end this way?
Just one day
