

I'll take this heart and throw it away
And be completely empty Fill the void with ashes and decay
It means nothing to me

I will live inside this dream world hide away from your scron
where I'm made of stone

I, I, I am hollow I am broken
I, I, I will never hurt again
I, I, I am hollow I am broken
down to a shade, down to a shade of grey

I'll take this heart and make it low as no man's cocaine silence all the screaming in my head that makes me insane

I will live inside this dream world hide away from your scron
where I'm made of stone

I, I, I am hollow I am broken
I, I, I will never hurt again
I, I, I am hollow I am broken
down to a shade, down to a shade of grey

I feel fine when I'm in my whole when there's no light and there's no soul
I can just let the world slip away Go!

I, I, I am hollow I am broken
I, I, I will never hurt again
down to a shade, down to a shade of grey

A shade of grey
A shade of grey
I am hollow I am broken down to a shade, down to a shade of grey
