

Social Suicide

A New Revolution

All that I have you just take, lost in a garden of snakes Broken in peices and sold off today this American dream has been rigged

You say it's suicide, and I say it'll save my life, everyone throw you hands into the sky
You say it's suicide, no matter what it will change my life, everyone throw your hands into the sky it's social suicide

stripped away all that we are, every scrape, every scab, every scar you bled will dry and you fill it with lies this world will soon argue will rise Takes just one to revolt, steal back the life you stole left me no choice but to run and explore, now i'm lost at the end of my rope

You say it's suicide, and I say it'll save my life, everyone throw you hands into the sky
You say it's suicide, no matter what it will change my life, everyone throw your hands into the sky
it's social suicide

I'm sorry but there's just no other way a gun in my hand is all i can say starting hard leaves a crazy man nobody moves this will all come to find america dream has now been rigged and you say it's suicide, I say it'll save my life, everyone throw you hands into the sky

Yeah
You say it's suicide, and I say it'll save my life, everyone throw you hands into the sky
You say it's suicide, no matter what it will change my life, everyone throw your hands into the sky
it's social suicide
it's social suicide
