

Hard To Hold

Angel Taylor

You wanna be lovers then you wanna be friends
You want me to spill out my heart just so that you can break it again
You wanna be more and you wanna be nothing
You just keep playing the same old game, I never win

Now I can hardly stand the feeling
When everyone keeps telling me

You're like a wall of stone, not what I expected
I can't get too close, 'cause touching you might end it
When you're here, I'm frozen, I'm scared and I can't help it
Then I get so cold

But maybe it's just you that's making me hard to hold
But maybe it's just you that's making me hard to hold, no no

I wanted forever, but you had no time
So sorry, this what you'll be feeling for wasting all mine
I wanted an answer but you gave me ten
I'm such a sucker for all of the things I don't get, mmh yeah

Now I can hardly recognize
The things I am or some say I am

You're like a wall of stone, not what I expected
I can't get too close, 'cause touching you might end it
When you're here, I'm frozen, I'm scared and I can't help it
Then I get so cold

But maybe it's just you that's making me hard to hold
But maybe it's just you that's making me hard to hold
But maybe it's just you that's making me hard to hold
