

Mama Said

Angel Taylor

I remember you that stormy summer night
When you told me you would never give up
I didn't know you were that unfinished glass of wine

Leaving me here like you do
I don't know why you do it, no
When you leave me just like you do
I just don't why you do this, no

Mama says I should go, go, go
Daddy never really knows oh, oh
Sister said just go, go, go
But my heart won't let me so
I just can't go

Wearing my hair straight cause you love the waves
Can't drink rum without saying your name
So I'm sticking to gin
Wish I was in her shoes
Not walking inside this place

Leaving me here like you do
Don't know why you do it
When you leave me here just like you do
Don't why you do this, no

Mama said just go, go, go
Daddy never really knows oh, oh
Sister said just go, go, go
But my heart won't let me so
I just can't go, go, go
Sister said just know know know
But my heart won't go

Dial you
But it's a dead line
I spend my Friday nights in
Loving myself
As if we never happened at all
But still no remedy
Waiting for that good good to come to me
Come to me
Don't go, go, go
Mama sayin' no, oh, oh
Daddy never really knows, knows, knows
And my heart won't let me
So I just can't go,
Mama say she knows, knows, knows
And my heart says don't, don't, don't
And I just can't let me
So I won't let go
