

A Book Like This

Angus & Julia Stone

Sun lights up the day time,
You light up my life.
The hand that calls you forward
is the hand that leaves me behind.

And I stand on the ocean shore ,
like an old black and white movie.
Love is here, love is lost, again tonight.

Hold me, hold me tonight. [2x]

You've got a book like this,
to keep me alive.
And if its not a rainy day,
you simply don't go outside

And you're tired of everything
all of the girls and the boys, and if you're tired of everything
all of your precious toys.

Hold me, hold me tonight
Hold me, hold me goodnight.

Sun lights up the daytime,
you light up my life.
The hand that calls you forward
is the hand, that leaves me behind.

Hold me, hold me tonight.
Hold me, hold me tonight.
