

I'll Wait

Angus & Julia Stone

Sit upon the falling wall
And make friends with a stranger
I watch the world go by without you
And I'll drive up north
While you drive around Neverland
We'll write to each other
As often as we can

And I wait
I wait for you
To touch my skin
To kiss my warmth
I'll wait
I'll wait for you
To save my grace
To help me through
I'll wait, I'll wait, for you

Well I've been working like a slave
For my new master
The clock is building roads today
For you to come home on
Underneath the firey sun
Work the whole day through
My skin cracks and blisters and burns
But at least I feel something
Maybe I'll feel closer to you

And I wait
I wait for you
To touch my skin
To kiss my warmth
I'll wait
I'll wait for you
To save my grace
To help me through
I'll wait, I'll wait,
I'll wait, I'll wait,
I'll wait, I'll wait, my love for you
