

Thanks For Reading My Mind

Anita Cochran

Do you know how glad I am to be in love with you
For the first time in my life I've found a love that's true
Can you feel the my heart speaking to you
It's so hard to tell you it's like a wall you see right through

Thanks for reading my mind
You know just what need to say
Time after time before the moments slip away
When I'm lost for words you say the very ones that I can't find

Thanks for reading my mind
Do you feel what I feel when we're making love
A thousand words can be heard with just a simple touch
When there's only silence do you understand

And you reach for my hand it's so good to know of course you can

Thanks for reading my mind
You know just what need to say
Time after time before the moments slip away

When I'm lost for words you say the very ones that I can't find
Thanks for reading my mind
Thanks for reading my mind
You know just what need to say

Time after time before the moments slip away
When I'm lost for words you say the very ones that I can't find
Thanks for reading my mind
