

Idaho

Anita Meyer

Certainly, True love can be a Rhapsody but one will leave, blue shadows all around to see no one to know, a golden heart can weep indeed pick up the pieces and start, don't deny the fire in your heart

Before you know you walk right into a Lovers stroll that's so romantic and even though you wanna bend it ooh, no, no, no
No I can't stand it not anymore he takes me high, high, high everytime he is by my side it feels so fine, back in Idaho, can't tell you why

Idaho, I found a heart of gold and something inside a feeling so fine, everyone should know don't you know, wayback in Idaho he rocked my soul, gave it a glow, wayback in Idaho givin' me everything I longed for It's a miracle that you surrender but natural 'cause love is tender and even though you understand it

ooh, no, no, no
No I can't stand it not anymore
he takes me high, high, high everytime he is by my side
it feels so fine, back in Idaho, can't tell you why

All the way, excitement and everyday sweet sensation, magical, no that's no lie it's a miracle, can't tell you why
