

No Moon At All

Anita O'Day

No moon at all what a night
Even livened bugs empty their light
Stars have disappeared from sight
And there's no moon at all

Do't make a sound, it's so dark
Even Fido he's afraid to bark
Oh, what a perfect chance to park
And there's no moon at all

Should we want atmosphere
For inspiration be one kiss
Will make it clear that tonight is right
And right from life nights interfere
