

Tears Ago

Anja Nissen

You used to be the one I needed
The one that I could never be without
Not now
I used to think if we just faked it
Pretended we were good
We'd make it out somehow

It took one last cry
One last time, for me to realize

You were my biggest mistake
My hardest habit to break
But that was tears ago, tears ago
Heartache and pain
I let it all wash away
So many tears ago, tears ago

I was holding on for nothing
Still the tears just kept on coming out
Almost drowned
But I won't let this keep on hurting
You're a lesson and I've learned it

Now I'm all out

It took one last cry
One last time, for me to realize

You were my biggest mistake
My hardest habit to break
But that was tears ago, tears ago
Heartache and pain
I let it all wash away
So many tears ago, tears ago

One last cry
One last time for me to realize

You were my biggest mistake
My hardest habit to break
But that was tears ago, tears ago
Heartache and pain
I let it all wash away
So many tears ago, tears ago
Tears ago, tears ago
