

Letting Me Go

Anna Abreu

I have put my faith in you
Trusted words I thought were true
All I built was on your land
Border's drawn now by your hand
I didn't see I never felt any changes
Wondering now who you are
Somebody else will learn to know all your faces
I've been misguided too far

You say you're letting me go
That we can't do it this way
We're at the end of the road
It's harder for you each day
To be and breathe if I'm near
Cause you don't belong me
You say you're letting me go
That we can't do it this way
We're at the end of the road
It's harder for you each day
So now you are letting me go
Cause everything is just wrong here

We have crumbled on thin ice
Crashing sounds made me realize
What I thought was warm and sweet
Is so cold it's hard to breathe
I didn't see I never felt any changes
Wondering now who you are
Somebody else will learn to know all your faces
I've been misguided too far

That we can't do it this way
We're at the end of the road
It's harder for you each day
To be and breathe if I'm near
Cause you don't belong me
You say you're letting me go
That we can't do it this way
We're at the end of the road
It's harder for you each day
So now you are letting me go
Cause everything is just wrong here

You say you're letting me go
That we can't do it this way
We're at the end of the road
What if I don't want to know?

You say you're letting me go
That we can't do it this way
We're at the end of the road
It's harder for you each day
To be and breathe if I'm near
Cause you don't belong me
You say you're letting me go
That we can't do it this way

We're at the end of the road
It's harder for you each day
So now you are letting me go
Cause everything is just wrong here

You say you're letting me go
That we can't do it this way
We're at the end of the road
It's harder for you each day
To be and breathe if I'm near
Cause you don't belong me
You say you're letting me go
That we can't do it this way
We're at the end of the road
It's harder for you each day
So now you are letting me go
Cause everything is just wrong here
