

I have said everything I wanted to say
I've done all that's in my power to do right now
But still I seem to get in a way of myself
So shoot me while I'm walking away
And stop the pain I feel in my heart somehow
Taken all I think I can take
I'm in hell
I don't wanna be your friend
But baby don't let me go
You know it's coming to an end
When you turn on the radio, radio, radio o-oh

My stereo don't play lovesongs at all,
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all,
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all, at all, at all, at all, no-o
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all,
It's ever since you came and broke my heart
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all, at all, at all, at all, no-o

Superman can make a mistake
Don't give up on the role of my heroine
I'm addicted and I'm starting to shake
I may never love again, so what does the singer know?
I guess it's coming to a end
When you turn on the radio, radio, radio, oh-oh

My stereo don't play lovesongs at all,
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all,
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all, at all, at all, at all, no-o
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all,
It's ever since you came and broke my heart
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all, at all, at all, at all, no-o

I don't wanna hear it no more
It's spoken and smashed on the floor like my heart,
My heart, my heart
You left in pieces
The DJ has left for the day
I think you're the person to blame
Cause your heart, your heart, your heart,
Your heart won't listen

My stereo don't play lovesongs at all,
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all,
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all, at all, at all, at all, no-o
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all,
It's ever since you came and broke my heart
My stereo don't play lovesongs at all, at all, at all, at all, no-o
