Cotton Jenny (Anne Murray, Olivia Newton-john)

Anne Murray

There's a house on a hill By a worn down weathered old mill In a valley below where the river winds There's no such thing as bad times

And a soft southern flame, oh Cotton Jenny's her name And she wakes him up when the sun goes down And the wheel of love goes round Wheels of love go round, love go round Love go round, a joyful sound

He ain't got a penny for Cotton Jenny to spend But then the wheels go round

When the new day begins
He goes down to the cotton gin
And he makes his time worth while to then
Then he climbs back up again

And she waits by the door, oh Cotton Jenny, he's sore And she rubs his feet while the sun goes down And the wheel of love goes round Wheels of love go round, love go round Love go round, a joyful sound

He ain't got a penny for Cotton Jenny to spend But then the wheels go round Wheels of love go round, love go round Love go round, a joyful sound

He ain't got a penny for Cotton Jenny to spend
But then the wheels go round
Wheels go round
Love go round
Love go round
Love go round
Love go round
