

Hey Daddy

Anne Murray

Hey daddy there's a dragon in the driveway,
Mamma there's a grizzly on the lawn.
You better come quick 'cause there's a hippo in the bathtub
And it's going down the drain, oh no its gone!

Well the minds of little children, they go round and round and round.
Hearing giants footsteps when I never hear a sound.

Hey daddy there's a dragon in the driveway,
Mamma there's a grizzly on the lawn.
You better come quick 'cause there's a hippo in the bathtub
And it's going down the drain, oh no its gone!

But you never know if they really saw all the things they have you believe,
But if there's dragons in this neighborhood then we're gonna le ave.

Hey daddy there's a dragon in the driveway,
Mamma there's a grizzly on the lawn.
You better come quick because there's a hippo in the bathtub
And it's going down the drain, oh no its gone!
And it's going down the drain oh no its gone!
And it's going down the drain oh no its gone!
