

That's What My Love Is For

Anne Murray

That's What My Love Is For
as performed by Anne Murray and Aaron Neville

Baby, it's a cruel world when luck won't run your way;
It's hard to keep on knockin' down the doors.
If you want somebody to take you as you are,
That's what my love is for.

If you get tired of all the games that other lovers play
In the name of love just waging war.
If you want somebody to tell it like it is,

That's what my love is for.

These arms are gonna hold you every night so faithfully.
These eyes are gonna see you unconditionally.

This body and soul are nobody's but yours.

This heart bears your name forever more.

And if some day you feel the need to spend time on your own,
Go and sail your ship away from shore;

Then I will be here shining; a lighthouse in the dark,

That's what my love is for.

That's what my love is for.

These arms are gonna hold you every night so faithfully.
These eyes are gonna see you unconditionally.

This body and soul are nobody's but yours.

This heart bears your name forever more.

True love asks no questions.

True love tells no lies.

True love is its own reward.

That's what my love is for.

That's what my love is for.

Oh, I, that's what my love

Is for.
