

I Wake Up

Anneke van Giersbergen

Frozen, older, I walk the streets alone
Further, falling, I stare into the cold

I wake up, with you next to me
I wake up, totally free
Your actions speak louder than words
I wake up, with you next to me

Faster, closer, I run towards the light
Can you help me to leave this all behind?

I wake up, with you next to me
I wake up, totally free
Your actions speak louder than words
I wake up, with you next to me

Your actions speak louder than words
I wake up, with you next to me
