

When A Heart Finds Another

Annie Haslam

When a heart finds another
And the rain has no mercy
When a heart

I know someone
He's from out of town
Talks to no one
With his eyes looking down

I know someone
Makes me wonder why
When I see him
There's a rainbow in the sky

Make your move don't wait
Don't you wait too long
Or it's too late
For this foolish heart of mine

When a heart finds another
What's a cloud more or less in the sky
Our love's growing wings and learns to fly
And the rain has no mercy
Doesn't want to leave us a place to hide
What's a little rain if you're walking by my side

Streets are empty
There's no hope no light
Come on over
Won't you stay the night

In my fortress
I've got room for two
You can let go now
I will fight for you

Make your move don't wait
Don't you wait too long
Or it's too late
For this foolish heart of mine

When a heart finds another
What's a cloud more or less in the sky
Our love's growing wings and learns to fly
And the rain has no mercy
Doesn't want to leave us a place to hide
All that rain and you're walking by my side

When one heart finds another
