Burns Like a Buzzsaw Blade

Annihilator

Excess perversion, and we'll never let it end You and I are making a private legend We've got the hunger, got the thirst You want it slow, our bodies glow Nails rake my back

Tongue licks sweet parade Animal lust and it burns like a buzzsaw blade Dripping wet, we laugh at this charade Screams of love in the air tonight and It burns like a buzzsaw blade

Gratification, do you want some more On the bed, entangled on the floor Feel my eyes burn, we writhe until the dawn Tease and please, humility is gone

Tongue licks sweet parade Animal lust and it burns like a buzzsaw blade Dripping wet, we laugh at this charade Screams of love in the air tonight and It burns like a buzzsaw blade

Come on What are you waiting for...

Excess perversion, and we'll never let it end You and I are making a private legend Feel my eyes burn, feel everything On my knees, but I reign as your king

Tongue licks sweet parade Animal lust and it burns like a buzzsaw blade Dripping wet, we laugh at this charade Screams of love in the air tonight and It burns like a buzzsaw blade
