

No Love

Annihilator

You nail yourself like Jesus posing on a cross you're waiting for the saviour you're waiting to get off I seen you in the movies I've passed you on the street I saw you walk on water or was that make-believe there is no love anymore
I am hanging helpless here in front of you

a broken toy, a puppet that no one wants to use I try to wake you slowly you push me to the ground loathe the final round
there is no love anymore
I throw myself at the sky and fall back to the ground I throw myself off the earth and you don't hear a sound trapped in rage, but you won't listen bursting veins, but you won't listen
there is no love anymore
