

Hypnagogue

Anomalous

Eye for an eye flesh of my flesh my kingdom's blind and skinless I need to feel their hate in my veins you bore the brunt of a fascist placebo now you'll play my capo kill for me, taste the blood like the spilling waves of your source's executioners wake

I need to feel your hate in my veins tear the skin, inject the rage fuel to their bombs and the other sides tanks doping on your bloodshed as the stiefel 's on the other foot absorbing the power of frenzied annihilation with enemies like these who needs friends? your only ally is your pain racking up the losses of my gain more recruits for your torture paradise spin it around camouflage our twisted symbiosis a threat to our way of life cowards infringing soiling our chosen river a shadow on our beacon shining beacon light reflecting off pillar swords of authority my duty, honour, country rest on my trigger fingers because I submit to the blessed first and last I'm entitled, god given the right to poison the well with the blood of your kind chosen, saved, kneeling living dead, disappearing act, judgement conflicts cancel perfect dissonance out of phase nucleus rapture bones dancing out of graves

I'm playing all sides reverse prism into black

I am chosen, I am saved my messiah has a tail between his legs sandy stage is set and I'm chosen, saved and kneeling only you can consolidate to eradicate my suns final arrived with charred flesh as your bride and a treasure that awaits us in the other side
