

Hellish Fire

Anthenora

Eagles of war
Arriving from the sky
A slight buzz announces that
Pathfinders are coming

A roaring thunder that means only death
A deafening whistle and all turns to black

As the "Queens of the skies" arrive
A firestorm burns all the ground
As the "Queens of the skies" arrive, hellish fire!

Fires burning
Sirens in the night
The devil's smile, the devil's cry
Human torches
Running through the streets and among
Black burnt bodies
That smoke on the ground
An acrid stench fills the air

A roaring thunder that means only death
A deafening whistle and all turns to black

As the "Queens of the skies" arrive
A firestorm burns all the ground
As the "Queens of the skies" arrive, hellish fire!

Big black wings darken the sky
No more sun but light by tracer-shells
Empty minds filled by fear
Wide open eyes

A roaring thunder that means only death
A deafening whistle and all turns to black

As the "Queens of the skies" arrive
A firestorm burns all the ground
As the "Queens of the skies" arrive, hellish fire!
