

Prophet of Sorrow

Anthenora

I am the prophet, I tell you the future
Future of sorrow, future of pain
I have no rest, I'm on the run
I have a task, it will never be done
Visions of sorrow you'll see in my eyes
I am the prophet, I leave you no hope

Better you pray, if you want to survive

I'm the law, the god of war, I am the prophet of sorrow
I'm the law, the idol of might I am the prophet of light

There is a secret caught in my mind
You won't believe it, your eyes are blind
You don't feel the danger crawling behind
The key of the shelter is in my hands
The ark of the covenant hidden inside

Better you pray, if you want to survive

I'm the law, the god of war, I am the prophet of sorrow
I'm the law, the idol of might I am the prophet of light

Consider your home, consider your son
Slavery's coming everything's lost
Don't run alone crawl as a ghost
Do look for allies unite the men
Mankind in a fist, a fist to the fate

Better you pray, if you want to survive

I'm the law, the god of war, I am the prophet of sorrow
I'm the law, the idol of might I am the prophet of light
I'm the light, I'm the law, I am the prophet of sorrow
