

The time is running out
The plot is ready now
As ready as never before
Down in the hole of wolf
The shadows are crawling silent
Silent as ghosts

Nobody is talking in the armoured room
Just one voice and one shout
One aim and one chance to kill
The devil an earth

Valkiria - High treason
The eagle must die
Valkiria - Kill or die
The only chance to try
And save your soul from the fire

The bombs exploding on surface
Create a sinister echo
Deep in your head
Fear and awe grow up
As his glance comes and weighs on you
A glance of insane

Nobody is talking in the armoured room
Just one voice and one shout
One aim and one chance to kill
The devil an earth

Valkiria - High treason
The eagle must die
Valkiria - Kill or die
The only chance to try
And save your soul from the fire
