

Obvious

Anthony Callea

We started as friends,
Then something happened inside me,
Now I'm reading into everything,
But there's no sign you hear the lightning

And you don't even notice me turning on my charm,
Or wonder why I'm always where you are

I've made it obvious,
Done everything but sing it,
(I've crushed on you so long but on and on you get me wrong),
I'm not so good with words,
And since you never notice the way that we belong,
I'll say it in a love song

I heard you talk about,
How you want someone just like me,
But everytime I ask you out,
We never move past friendly

And you don't ever notice how I stare when we're alone,
Or wonder why I keep you on the phone

I've made it obvious,
Done everything but sing it,
(I've crushed on you so long but on and on you get me wrong),
I'm not so good with words,
And since you never notice the way that we belong,
I'll say it in a love song

You are my first thought in the morning,
(and the last one at night)
You are the love that came without warning,
I need you, I want you to know

I've made it obvious,
So finally I'll sing it,
I'm not so good with words,
And since you never notice the way that we belong,
I'll say it in a love song

I'll sing until the day you're holding me,
I've wanted you for so long but on and on you get me wrong,
I more than adore you and since you never seem to see,
I'll say it in this love song
