

Drug Dealer

Anthony Green

If you found something so unnecessary
Get you down
There's no one else to blame
I need something stronger something extra strength
Millions of materials to trade
If you could offer only love

[Chorus: Repeat 2X]
You'd be like a god to us
Like a drug dealer
Our soul, out of trust
You threw it away
You'd be like a god to us

I use to lie
And everyone I know
Seems to hate themselves
But I do it as well
We need something stronger something extra strength
Half millions of recordings that are fake

If you could offer only love

[Chorus:]
You'd be like a god to us
Like a fool's healer
Like a tarot card reader
But you've thrown it all away
[Chorus:]
But you've thrown it all away
You've thrown it all away
You've thrown it all away
You've thrown it all away
