

From What I Understand

Anthony Green

Release my arrow, but I forgot to aim.
It burdens me to think, that I'll never get to start.
Deciphering the words, from what I understand.

Don't come down on me.
I didn't want this.
It's a disaster.
Please don't think of me.
Like I'm your captor,
What are you after.

You drink yourself to sleep. And wake up in a daze.
The past is there to show, what would I ever want.
Divided and away from what I understand.

Don't pretend with me.
Like your an actor,
It's a disaster.
Please don't think of me.
I didn't want this,
What are you after.

The way that it works when I see the end and I couldn't comprehend,
You ask me to go without me your free, but I couldn't let it be [x2]

Don't pretend with me.
I wont put it past her, it's a disaster.
