When I Come Home

Anthony Green

I know that we've been snowed in for days
And we haven't felt the sun
Storm has come, but I feel better off when I'm alone
If we ever make it past, with nothin' left
(True love, true love, true love, true love)

Don't blame me if I'm right, you were always on your way out
You can take your time, I'll be patient
Don't hate me if I say "If there's something I can change"
You'd still be in love, when I come home (when I come home)

I know that I've been closed up from you, thought it's what I h ad to do
Lights gone out, but it feels brighter then when they were on
If we ever make it through, with nothin' left
(True love, true love, true love)

Don't blame me if I'm right, you were always on your way out
You can take your time, I'll be waiting
Don't hate me if I say "If there's something I would save"
You'd still be in love when I come home

It's gotta count for something, I'll be lost and honest well
Did the best with what I had, if you would count me out
Just don't count me out
Don't blame me if I run, you were always on your way out
You can take your time, I'll be patient
Don't hate me if I say "If there's something, I would change"
You'd still be in love, when I come home
When I come home
