

Forgive Me

Anthony Hamilton

Ooooooh
Forgive me, baby
Forgive me, baby
Ooooooh
Baby, baby, forgive me

Thinkin' back when you were with me
And we were happy
Now I'm alone, here stuck on dead wrong
Heart broke and ashamed
I left you nights all alone, didn't call on the phone
To see how you have been
Now I cry, "Why, oh why, didn't I realize
That I was losin' a friend?" Oh, baby

Forgive me, I'm sorry, baby
Honey, I'm sorry, for drivin' you crazy
From the man in me, here's a strong apology
Forgive me, I'm sorry, baby

Now I know that things aren't the same
And I'm to blame
Causin' commotions, how could we get closer
I'm losin' my range
You suffer from bumps and abuses from all the excuses
That I had to give
I lost my girl who's the world, and a friend
How can I live? Ohhh

Look what you've done to me
You wrecked my life you see
I can't forget it, I have to spend with
The pain that you bring
Not your apology
So what a thing in me
I only wanted to be close to you
My love, baby

Forgive me, I'm sorry, baby
Honey, I'm sorry, for drivin' you crazy
From the man in me, here's a strong apology
Forgive me, I'm sorry, baby
Forgive me, I'm sorry, baby
Honey, I'm sorry, for drivin' you crazy
From the man in me, here's a strong apology
Forgive me, I'm sorry, baby
Forgive me

I just want to let you know
That my feelin's are sore
