

The Constant

Anthrax

In a time or place
And you know my face
And how it is I know you
Something so familiar
I can't recognize

And I slip and I slip
As I slip unstuck in time
Gotta find my constant
Or my mind is lost

Stronger
Than any stretch of imagination
Spanning my world, my all

Am I here now in between undivided?
I'm whole now, so hear me

Scream as my heart pounds
Moving so fast now
I am here, I am here
Lost in the moment
Caught in the current
I am here, I am here
Scream as my heart pound
Burn the past down
I am here, I am here

Now close my eyes
Take the past and
Burn it, burn it, burn it
Burn it down

I'm here, I'm there
Slipstream I scream
Tell me you hear me
My time is here, my place is now

And I slip and I slip
As I slip through space, I'm tethered
A lifeline to cross time back at you

Stronger
Than any stretch of imagination
Spanning my world, my all

Am I here now in between undivided?
I'm whole now, so hear me

Scream as my heart pounds
Moving so fast now
I am here, I am here
Lost in the moment
Caught in the current
I am here, I am here
Scream as my heart pound
Burn the past down

I am here, I am here

Now close my eyes
Take the past and
Burn it down

Yeah, If I could change one thing I'd Take back all the lost time
I spent away from your side
Go back and make it right

Am I here now in between undivided?
Am I here now in between undivided?
Am I here now in between undivided?
I'm whole now, so hear me

Scream as my heart pounds
Moving so fast now
I am here, I am here
Lost in the moment
Caught in the current
I am here, I am here
Scream as my heart pound
Burn the past down
I am here, I am here

Now close my eyes
Take the past and
Burn it down
