You Are My Sister

Antony and the Johnsons

You are my sister, we were born So innocent, so full of need There were times we were friends but times I was so cruel Each night I'd ask for you to watch me as I sleep I was so afraid of the night You seemed to move through the places, that I feared You lived inside my world so softly Protected only by the kindness of your nature You are my sister And I love you May all of your dreams come true You are my sister And I love you May all of your, all of your dreams come true We felt so differently then So similar over the years The way we laugh, the way we experience pain So many memories But there's nothing left to gain from remembering Faces and worlds that no one else will ever know You are my sister And I love you May all of your dreams come true You are my sister And I love you May all of your, all of your dreams come true All of your, all of your dreams, come true I want this for you They're gonna come true (gonna come true) They're gonna come true (gonna come true) I see them come (see them come true) Oh I see them come, I see them come I see them come, I see them come
